OUTLINES.

As the contractors have not completed the monument to be erected to Capt. John Smith, the unveiling exercises to have taken place at the Jamestown Exposition, have been postponed.——In his report Gen. Meyers, of the Department of Texas, fixes on the negro troops the shooting up of Brownsville.——Two fires at Pittsburg yesterday destroyed eight building valued at $250,000.——Secretary Taft yesterday addressed the Kentucky Republican State convention at Louisville, confining himself to the race question, which he declared kept the South from becoming Republican; he declared that the Southerner is the negro's best friend, and it is all right to disfranchise the negro for illiteracy if the white man is also dsqualified.——E. F. Noel seems to be leading for governor in the Mississippi Democratic primaries for gubernatorial honors.——The executive committee of the American Federation of Labor arrived at Norfolk yesterday and will arrange for the annual session of the Federation at the Exposition beginning November 12th.——Edwin H. Potts, a trusted employe of the American National Bank, Washington, D. C., is missing and the police are looking for him on a charge of stealing $11,000 certificates.——Near St. Peter's Dome, Col., yesterday an attempt was made to blow up a train, the windows being shattered and one man's hand being cut.——Cincinnatti, O., had a million dollar fire last night, the flames originating in the Eagle White Lead Company's plant and spreading to adjoining buildings—Five men were entombed yesterday by the collapse of an earthen wall in a mine at Port Blanchard, near Wilkesbarre, Pa.; some of the men crawled out, but others are believed to have been killed.——Two daughters, aged 14 and 16, were attacked by a negro rapist near Pocahontas, W. The enmity and envy of others is often the penalty of a man's success.

If President Roosevelt is really looking for a way to punish the trusts he might try revision of the tariff.

Some people in New York permit themselves to be awfully scared by the bears in Wall Street.

It is almost invariably a hard luck story that comes from Wall Street these days.

Taft has made Foraker tired because the Big Secretary of War failed to discover and frustrate a new rebellion in North Carolina.

After looking into it to considerable extent, Mrs. Eddy's "next friends" apparently concluded there is nothing in it for them.

"Don't laugh at other people's misfortunes," we are told, but you can't keep a fellow from laughing at some other fellow's predicament.

Ida M. Tarbell says "Mr. John D. Rockefeller lacks the collective sense." However, she must admit that he hires other people who can collect to beat the band.

President Roosevelt's Provincetown speech has not "quieted the situation." After reading it, the "criminal rich," are more uneasy than ever. The only way to escape and be happy is to be good.

Probably that yarn to the effect that work on the Panama Canal is going ahead faster than the appropriation provides for, is only preparing us for an excuse for spending that $8,000,000 before it should have been spent.

The benefactions of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, according to figures recently compiled, amount to $102,000,000, or more. His gifts are to colleges, churches, schools and charities. He has given the Chicago University $24,000,000, but his largest gift was $43,000,000 to the General Education Board.

Says the Savannah Morning News: "Secretary Cortelyou proposes to apply civil service rules in the Treasury Department without reference to sex, and has begun by promoting several deserving women clerks to better places and higher salaries." However, Cortelyou should know that the female vote of the country already has been cinched by Vice President Fairbanks for pulling a girl out of a lake.

RED MEN'S GALA DAY

Celebration Yesterday at Wrightsville Beach by Cherokee Tribe, No. 9, I. O. R. M.

THE EVENTS ENTERTAINING

Tug of War, Sham Battle and Sparring Matches Some Features of Athletic Contests—Music and Dancing—Programme.

Despite the rain and other untoward circumstances in connection with the weather, "Red Men's Day" at Wrightsville Beach yesterday under the auspices of Cherokee Tribe No. 9, I. O. R. M., of this city, was pronounced a success in every particular. The rain kept many away and the crowd was not too large for comfort. The best of order was maintained, and all who participated in the exercises and those who went down as spectators were eminently well pleased with the celebration. Headquarters were established at Lumina and at the Casino, and there the jolly men of the forest gathered, enjoyed their sports and did everything but paint the beach the vermillion hue which the name of the order might suggest to the unitiated. Large crowds went down on the early afternoon trains of the Consolidated Company before the rain commenced and once there, the elements had no effect on the jollity of the crowds.

Perhaps the most spectacular feature of the day was the sham battle between a band of Red Men in war paint costume and a detachment of the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, it having been impossible for the regulars to come up from Fort Caswell as had been expected. The mimic warfare took place on the beach in front of the pavilion and was quite interesting as representing the primitive and modern methods of fighting. The Red men are especially grateful to Lieut. Chase, of the Naval Reserves, for his kindness in allowing the Reserves to participate in the affair.

During the day there was dancing to the accompaniment of two bands, both at Lumina and in the Casino, and a programme of interesting and amusing athletic and other exercises were given for the entertainment of the visitors by the Red Men themselves. These events and the prizes in each were as follows:

Bag race, silk umbrella given by the C. W. Polvogt Co., won by Robert Thompson.

Egg race for boys, pocket knife given by James Winberg, won by Ben Duncan.

Egg race for men, silk parasol given by C. W. Polvogt Co., won by J. A. Parker.

Climbing greasy pole, watch by Zoeller & Co., not given on account of rain.

Tug of war, $5 in gold offered by the committee, won by team captained by Wm. E. Watson.

Pie eating contest, pair of shoes given by Solomon's Shoe Store, won by George Sperzel, of Philadelphia.

Watermelon contest, hat given by J. W. H. Fuchs, won by Mr. Rowan.

At night an interesting feature of the contest was a series of sparring matches between Messrs. James Winberg and George Sperzel, of Philadelphia, and Douglass Yarborough and Ed. Wilson, two well known young colored pugilists. Both events were declared a draw, but the matches afforded new and novel entertainment for a large crowd which lined the ring. Between the colored boxers there were two matches of four rounds each.

The affair was in charge of a general committee composed of Messrs. A. T. Parker, C. H. Huband, W. H. Lane and John Davis, while the chairman of a special committee on music was Mr. D. A. Rowan and on athletic sports, Mr. James Winberg. The party returned to the city on the late car last night, enthusiastic over the sports of the day.

Of Interest Locally.

There is local interest in the announcement in the Raleigh News and Observer of the marriage of Miss Arra Goodwin and Mr. Pallie Mangum of that city. Mr. Mangum is an employe of the Southern Bell Telephone Company in this capital city and it was he who was largely responsible for the lowering of the hook and ladder record of the world by the Raleigh company at the late tournament here. He was the climber who ascended the ladder with such alacrity and won the plaudits of the thousands assembled to witness the feat. The News and Observer thus happily gives the groom a greeting: "Having broken the world's record in hook and ladder contests, there is no better wish for him in winning the best first prize, a wife, than that their happiness may be in the record breaking class."

MR. KITCHIN AT WARSAW

Candidate for Governor There in Connection With Duplin County's Farmer's Institute, Which Was Highly Successful.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 22.—The farmers' institute for Duplin county, conducted by Dr. Tait Butler, of Raleigh, and Mr. T. B. Parker, of Hillsboro, was held here today with a fair representation of the best farmers of the county in attendance. The institute was held in the graded school building and was opened at 10:30 A. M. by Dr. Butler, who discussed at length the subject of crop rotation, stressing the importance of the rotation of crops as a means of improving the soil. Dr. Butler made the assertion that crop rotation is the basis of all soil improvement. His address contained much food for thought for the farmers and elicited many questions from them as to what methods to adopt in attempting to secure a profitable plan of rotation of crops.

Mr. Parker followed Dr. Butler with an address on legumes, urging the cultivation of the leguminous crops, both because of their value as feed crops and because of their value in improving the soil. At the close of Mr. Parker's address the institute adjourned for dinner, reassembling at 2 o'clock, when Dr. Butler spoke to the growers, giving them some rules to observe in selecting different kinds of stock, dwelling particularly upon the rules for selecting dairy and beef cattle.

Mr. Parker closed the institute with an address on corn culture, urging the farmers to ask questions and join freely in the discussion, which they did with much profit to themselves. Many farmers in attendance upon the institute expressed themselves as much pleased with the discussions of the day, and as determined to adopt some new methods in their farming the coming year.

Mr. W. W. Kitchin was here, and delivered an address at the opera house after the close of the farmers' institute. Mr. Kitchin discussed the railroads, their attitude toward the people; the American Tobacco Company and other trusts. He scored the railroads for attempting to ignore the recent rate law, and accused the railroads and the American Tobacco Company of opposing his candidacy for Governor. Mr. Kitchin expressed himself as confident of securing the nomination for Governor at the coming Democratic convention, basing his hope upon what he chose to call his service to the people.

CHARTERS GRANTED

Willson-Marine Grocery Company Among Those Issued at Raleigh Yesterday.

NEWS FROM STATE CAPITAL

Dormitory for Wake Forest—Academy of Music Sale—Jos. K. Marshall Dead — Governor Expresses Himself on Rates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C. August 22.—The Willson-Martin Grocery Company, of Wilmington, having for its purpose the operation of a grocery establishment and canneries for fruit, oysters and fish, was chartered today with $25,000 capital by J. E. Willson, F. W. Marine and W. N. Marine, of Marines, N. C.

Another charter is for the Rockingham Motor Company, of Rockingham, Richmond County, capital $10,000, authorized, and $3,000 subscribed, for manufacturing and dealing in motor cars.

Another charter is for the Blue Ridge Bending Company, of Lenoir, for wood working shops and lumber plants, capital $50,000, by John Hill and others. There is also a charter for the Lenoir Hardware and Furniture Company, of Lenoir, capital $25,000, by T. B. Lenoir and others.

There was a session of the Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College in this city to-day for the purpose of adopting plans for a $30,000 dormitory building for the college, to be ready by 1908. It is to accomodate about 200 students and will be modern in every detail of equipment.

Sonney Jeffreys, a well known negro here, has in his yard a remarkable curiosity in the shape of a grape vine that is bearing pecans this year. There is a pecan tree two years old (too young to bear) and close beside it a grape vine planted last year, the roots of the two being intermingled. On the grape vine are five well developed pecans. The remarkable plants are attracting much attention.

It develops that the options that has been given on the Raleigh Academy of Music is to the Traders' Land Company, of Charlotte. It is not known what the plans of the concern are in the event the deal is finally closed. A clincher payment of $500 has been made, the purhcase price to be in the neighborhood of $36,000.

Chief Justice Walter Clark has gone to Pittsboro to take part in the unveiling of the Confederate monument there tomorrow.

The people of Raleigh were deeply grieved and shocked this morning by the news of the death of Mr. Joseph K. Marshall, one of the most popular and widely known young business men at the State Capital. The end came at Red Sulphur Springs, Va., where he has been with Mrs. Marshall and little daughter for the past four weeks in hope of regaining his health, which had been failing rapidly for some time. He was a son of Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., and was 33 years of age.

The remains will be brought to Raleigh to-morrow and the funeral announcement will be made later. The interment will be in the family plot in Oakwood cemetery.

Speaking of his trip to New York the Governor expresses himself as well pleased with the progess made and the showing for the State in the "finding of the facts." He says, too, that no matter what the result may be as to the application of the act to railroads generally, under the terms of the North Carolina road to the Southern it must be observed on the North Carolina road. He threatens, too, to advocate the vitiation of the lease the State has given the Southern on the North Carolina road if the company continues to harrass the State with all matter of litigation. The Governor says he explained his attitude in this matter clearly to General Counsel Thom, of the Southern, in the conference he had with that official in New York.

Speaking of this conference the Governor says: "I submitted two propositions to Mr. Thom: 1. Avoid unnecessary costs by first taking up the legal propositions involved, and let the Supreme Court of the United States pass on these, so there can be light under which to act in further litigation. 2. Stop the Southern's suit and test the rate fairly, and if found too low, appeal to the fairness of the people of the State to grant relief.

Concerning the possibility of vitiating the case of the North Carolina road, the Governor said: "If the suit continues, no matter what the result, under the lease of the North Carolina road to the Southern, the 2 1-4 cent rate must apply on that road. And if the Southern continues to harrass the State with litigation or causes others to do so, it may vitiate the lease entirely."

The Governor says reports of interviews with him in New York misrepresented him in saying he favored an even lower rate than 2 1-4 cents. He says the fact is that he favored a 2 1-2 cent rate during the Legislature but was now convinced that the companies can stand a 2 1-4 cent rate.

LIVING IN MORTAL DREAD

Queer Hallucination of Unfortunate Colored Woman Placed in Jail Yesterday by County Officers. Mentally Unbalanced.

Laboring under the strange hallucination that she was being pursued by imaginary persons who sought to take her life or do her great bodily harm, Mamie Potter, a middle-aged negress living at No. 6 North Twelfth street, was taken from her home where she had barricaded herself yesterday morning by Special Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox and William Sheeham and lodged in jail until her mental condition can be inquired into and arrangements made for her admission into the hospital for the colored insane at Goldsboro. From the indications about the house, the officers are constrained to believe that in her terror the woman has been closely shut up in the house for several days without food or water.

The Potter woman had been missing from the neighborhood for several days, and those in the vicinity knowing her condition mentally were satisfied from the closed and barricaded house that the woman had either wandered off or had shut herself in as the result of the queer hallucination with which she was suffering. The case was reported to Chief of Police Williams, but as all matters of the kind are in charge of the county Chief Williams passed the report on to Sheriff Cowan, who sent the officers named to investigate the report and see what could be done for the unfortunate creature. They proceeded to the house and finding it closely shut up, they knocked several times for admittance. This was not gained, but a noise heard on the inside convinced the men that there was some one within. They forced an entrance finally and found the poor woman crouched in one corner with fear written upon every feature. They gave her what assurance her diseased mind could comprehend and asked her to go with them, which she did, offering no resistance, but being apparently in mortal dread of something she knew not what. She was made as comfortable as possible in jail and was given food and drink, after which she seemed somewhat refreshed. A commission of lunacy will today inquire into the case and probably recommend that she be taken at the hospital for colored insane at Goldsboro.

Excursion This Evening.

All Odd Fellows and their friends are asked not to forget the excursion on the steamer Wilmington under the auspices of the Daughters of Rebekah in compliment to the visitors from the Odd Fellows Home at Goldsboro tonight. The boat will leave her wharf at 8 o'clock and proceed up the river as far as the Magnolia Tree, returning before late at night. Mrs. Parker is chairman of the committee in charge and all are assured a pleasant occasion. Refreshments will be served and the children may contribute some musical selections during the evening.

—Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says there was 15 feet of water in the Cape Fear at that point yesterday morning, with a rapid rise in progress, and that the City of Fayetteville left yesterday morning for Wilmington with an excursion party in charge of Mr. A. R. Bruney, of Bladen county. Excursionists will be taken on all along the river.

The $30,000 dormitory to be erected at Wake Forest College is of the magnificent gift the college has just received from Mrs. Parrott, of Kinston, in the shape of a piece of property valued now at more than $25,000, Mrs. Parrott to have an annuity of $1,200 from the property during her lifetime and the whole to pass then to the college.

This afternoon Engineer Ripply came right from Burlington and gave bond of a thousand dollars in the case in which the coroner's jury charged criminal negligence in that he with Conductor Oakley forgot their meeting orders, causing the wreck at Auburn, August 6th.

Governor Glenn appoints T. J. Burdock, Salisbury; Dr. A. H. Moment, Raleigh, and J. S. Mann, superintendent of the State prison, as delegates to the National Prison Association in Chicago, September 14th to 19th.

Corporation Commissioner S. L. Rogers has gone to Lincolnton to hear complaints of citizens and representatives of the Seaboard Air Line and Carolina and Northwestern Railroad Company for and against a union depot for that town.

Grand Master Perrin Busbee, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, has recently issued charters for three new lodges in the western section of the State. One at Tobe Valley, Yancey county, another at Balsam and still another at Suit, in Cherokee county. There will be a charter within the next few days for a lodge at the Falls of the Neuse, Wake county. The order is gaining ground, the Grand Master says, in every section of the State, all the lodges are increasing in membership steadily.

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity of Raleigh, gave an elaborate banquet last night in honor of the birthday of Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, who is Knight Commander of the Raleigh chapter. There were twentyodd guests, and the affair was most delightful in every detail.

IN A BAD RUNAWAY

Mr. Alex S. Heide Had Frightful Experience Yesterday Afternoon on Princess Street

PONIES FRIGHTENED BY CAR

Dashed Off and Dragged Owner For Some Considerable Distance, Vehicle Being Overturned—Two Little Girls Escaped Injury.

Mr. Alexander S. Heide, the well known ship broker and vice consul at this port for the governments of Sweden, Norway and Denmark, was painfully injured and had a narrow escape from death in a frightful runaway of the pair of very fine ponies which he drives to a trap, yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock near Sixth and Princess streets. The ponies became frightened at the too close approach of a street car which was not observed by Mr. Heide and the trap was run into the side of the curbing of the street with the result that the vehicle was demolished and Mr. Heide was dragged some distance in an effort to hold the ponies. Two little girls in the trap with Mr. Heide managed to get out of the vehicle without being injured.

Mr. Heide left his office at the usual hour yesterday afternoon and went to his home, 602 Orange street, to take his accustomed drive behind the two fine little ponies which are the admiration of all who have seen them on the streets. A niece's little daughter and another little girl about the same age were taken into the trap, Mr. Heide never being happier than when he is giving pleasure to some one else, and they had proceeded down Sixth street, nearly as far as Princess when Mr. Heide heard the approach of a train of suburban cars. The ponies were reined in and stopped until the cars had passed. Thinking the way clear, Mr. Heide then started to cross the track and before he knew what had happened another car was upon him almost. This was city car No. 12, in charge of Motorman J. E. Marritt and Conductor J. T. Edgerton. The car ran very close to the trap and witnesses differ as to whether or not the wheel of the vehicle was struck. At any rate the escape was so narrow that the ponies became frightened and dashed off to one side, running the trap into the curbing and turning it over, the children escaping unhurt. Mr. Heide endeavored to hold on to the reins of his sprightly little ponies and was dragged for some distance on the hard macadam, finally getting the animals under control. It was not, however, until he had received a very bad scar on the forehead, a bad contusion of the left eye, a cut on the left arm about the elbow and bruises all over the body. His clothing was almost torn from his body in the terrible experience through which he passed in a short length of time. The motorman and conductor on the car and several passengers, including Mr. J. Frank Jarman, the druggist, went to Mr. Heide's assistance and he was helped into the residence of Mrs. Price, on the corner from where the hospital ambulance was called. Mr. Heide, however, preferred his own physician and Dr. J. T. Schonwald was summoned. Dr. Schonwald gave the patient all necessary relief that was possible temporarily and Mr. Heide was sent to his home where he was reported as resting very well last night. He is badly bruised and broken, however, and will be laid up for several days. Dr. Schonwald continues to attend him.

While he was being dragged on the street, Mr. Heide lost his watch and eyeglasses but the watch was subsequently recovered. The glasses have not been found. Friends of Mr. Heide hope that his injuries will not develop as seriously as they may seem and that he may be out again in a few days. No bones were broken but he suffered very considerably from the shock and the contusions over his body, the cut on the arm being especially severe.

MRS. A. C. WORTH DEAD.

Passed Away at Her Home in Creskill, N. J.—News Received Here.

Mr. B. G. Worth has received a telegram conveying to him the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. A. C. Worth, at the family home in Creskill, N. J. While the news was not unexpected, it came as a great shock to members of the family and friends in this city. Mrs. Worth passed away Wednesday afternoon after a period of ill health for some time. She was a Miss Anderson, of Fayetteville, and a sister of Mrs. W. D. MacMillan, of this city. Mrs. MacMillan recently spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Worth at their home in New Jersey, and had been home only a short while when the distressing news reached her. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in Wilmington and in this State.

STIRRED UP OVER COTTON.

It is announced from Boston that the New England cotton manufacturers plan to be well represented at the international conference of manufacturers, spinners and cotton growers, to be held in Atlanta, in October. More than a hundred European manufacturers and spinners have already signified their intention to attend.

In order that the European visitors may know more about the section of the United States which produces the bulk of the raw cotton used in the world, a nineteen-day trip in the South is being planned for them. They will be joined in New York by a party of American manufacturers and, travelling by special train, will visit the cotton manufacturing centres ad the cotton growing districts. They will be shown plantations at the picking season, and see the cotton taken from the field, ginned, baled, compressed, and started on its way to market and mill.

Very great interest is being manifested at Boston in the Atlanta conference. New England will be well represented there, and it will be curious to watch the result of the coming together of so many varied interests of the cotton industry. A Boston writer, telling of New England's interest in the conference, says:

"The South has climatic conditions for the growing of cotton unlike any other part of the world. It has been said that 'until a revolution occurs in the meteorological constitution of the earth the South will maintain the leadership."

If the Atlanta conference results in better methods for packing and caring for cotton, it will do a good work toward helping us to maintain our cotton supremacy.

SIGN OF EARLY AND LONG WINTER.

There may be something in some signs, but we don't know. We have to keep up with the weather signs, however, to keep from getting left if anything comes out of them. Therefore, we have to give this from the Philadelphia Record:

"The report from Cape May that an enormous gathering of swallows had been observed there, after which the lot flew southward, with the consequent augury for an early and long Winter,' said a weather sharp, 'is rather discouraging in these days of high-priced coal and other expenses, but, if it must be, so be it. The old saying that a single swallow does not make a Summer may be amended by adding that a conference, or mass meeting, or convention, or whatever you may call it, of swallows, cannot make a Winter. Just what the Cape May swallows detect in the August weather conditions to induce them to fly southward I am at a loss to imagine. We were having a bit of cool weather, to be sure, but not enough to chill even a swallow — at least it doesn't affect the sparrows, who haven't any more feathers than swallows. The careful observer will probably note in a few days that the swallows are coming north again, evidently realizing that they started on a false alarm."

The sign, they say, is for an early and long Winter. As a matter of fact, it has already been frosting in Minnesota and other Northwestern States, and it is now unseasonably cold at the Northern Summer resorts.

RELIGIOUS SNAKE STORY.

We have seen snake stories of various kinds, but we have never seen a religious snake story till we got a glimpse of that one sent from Nashville, Tenn., on Tuesday. The story goes that the Rev. William Grabb, pastor of the Church of the First Born, is creating intense excitement throughout Brown county by adding hundreds of persons to his flock by demonstrating the truth of his creed with rattlesnakes.

He declares that nothing can bring harm to the true worshippers of the Most High, and said he could handle any kind of reptile without injury to himself under the divine protection, which he asserts is ever about him. In order to test his faith, it is said that rattlesnakes caught in the woods but a few days ago were taken to the church, and he was asked to prove his sincerity. He took them out of the box and wrapped them about his neck and thus adorned exhorted his hearers. Every sinner in the audience went to the mourner's bench as a result of the demonstration.

A story like that is sent out for people to believe and lots of them will believe it, too.

TAMMANY CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

The Savannah Morning News remarks:

"Tammany Hall, according to a story from New York, will present a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. He is Louis Stuyvesant Chanler, now Lieutenant Governor of the State. The movemet in favor of the Chanler boom is said to have been organized nearly a year ago, and to have behind it all of the social prestige and wealth of the Astor family. But may it not be that his silk stocking connections and his family's wealth will prove a handicap to the aspirations of the gentleman?"

If the silk stocking business doesn't make him eligible and help him out, it will be the first time that it has failed in a long time—speaking in a general political way. A man has to have a big pull or a big purse to get most any kind of office now. It has gotten so it costs a man a pile of money to be Governor, United States Senator, and the like. The man without the dough is not in the race.

MISLEADING THE RACE.

We do not know but one of Booker T. Washington's assistants has now gotten into a position where he can mislead his race instead of teaching it lessons of industry. A dispatch from New York says:

"The success which has attended realty companies, mercantile enterprises and business institutions run by colored persons in the interests of ther race has now brought about the starting of a stock brokerage office in the Wall Street district. It will open for business on September 1. Robert W. Taylor, who for fourteen years has been the financial secretary of Tuskegee Institute, has leased offices and has issued an attractive pamphlet, which has been extensively c irculated among Afro-Americans."

Dabbling in stocks is bad for the white man and for the black man. They are lambs for the fleecers and if the darkey is to add Wall Street gambling to his other vices, we pity the race.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A colored Chautauqua speaker calls Senator Tillman "a cheap sensationalist." Perhaps he doesn't know that the Senator gets $200 per lecture.—Washington Post.

—By this time the trusts have probably found something in the President's Provincetown speech that will serve as an excuse for another imitation fit.—Washington Post.

—When the Coast Artillery has been added to the navy, and the Revenue Marine has been attached also to that department, the navy will be just about the biggest thing in the country.—Savannah News.

During the President's various jaunts this week extraordinary precautions will be taken for his protection. DRAKES PALMETTO COMPOUND

The great stomach and kidney restorative. Just one dose of Palmetto taken daily for a week or two has been known to cure some of the most obstinate diseases of the

STOMACH, LIVER and KIDNEYS.

We know it will produce just such radical cures. We have seen it tested in absolute chronic cases, in fact, cases where every other known treatment seemed to have failed and in none of them did Palmetto fail to produce speedy and lasting cures; these same people are as healthy and strong to-day as they ever were in their life. Lame back, headaches, shooting pains in the shoulders, quivering of the flesh, indigestion, no appetite, pains after eating, etc., any one or all of these symptoms indicate stomach or kidney troubles and treatment should not be delayed. We guarantee that one bottle of Palmetto will do more genuine good in such cases than all other medicines you have ever taken combined.

We guarantee every bottle; if it fails to cure, take the empty bottle back to your druggist and get your money back.

Bright's Disease. Drake's Palmetto cured me of Bright's Disease. I have bought and given away four 75c bottles to my neighbors. Wm. D. Sweet, Plessis, N. Y.

Indigestion, Constipation and Catarrh. Your Palmetto has cured me of indigestion, constipation and catarrh of the head. I shall never be without the grand medicine. Mrs. L. Boyd, Rector, Clay Co., Ark.

They're Worth While.

The Undertaker's Shop.

"The one thing in New York that I can't get used to," said the country visitor, "is the manifold uses to which undertakers put their shops. I used to be of the opinion that the only possible errand a person could have at an undertaker's was to purchase funeral supplies, but in this town I find that people go there for all sorts of purposes. They go to vote, to get married and to transact all the legal business that a notary public is capable of transacting. Yesterday I even saw a party eating luncheon in an undertaker's establishment. They had come into town apparently to attend a funeral and instead of patronizing a restaurant they calmly munched their midday meal in the midst of those lugubrious surroundings." — New York Globe.

Irascible Carlyle.

A lady who lived near Thomas Carlyle kept Cochin China fowls, and their crowing was such a nuisance that the philosopher sent a complaint to her. The owner was indignant upon hearing the appeal.

"Why," said she, "they crow only four times a day, and how can Mr. Carlyle be seriously annoyed at that?"

Upon hearing of her attitude upon the subject Carlyle replied, "The lady forgets the pain I suffer in waiting for those four crows."

Once Too Often.

"What's all this excitement about?"

"Nothing worth mentioning. Man got knocked down."

"Accident?"

"Not exactly. One of these men who always catch hold of you and push you out of their way when you happen to meet them at a crowded corner grabbed the wrong man just now. That's all."—Chicago Tribune.

Saving Time.

Father (to his son, early in the morning)—What is the meaning of this? You are lying in bed with your clothes on. Son (a student)—Yes, father. I do that so that if I oversleep myself I shall not be late at college.—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Torture.

A shrewd old doctor once said: "If I wanted to torture an enemy, I would tell him he had an incurable disease. His life would be miserable, and he would be almost certain to die before his time."

Missed Vocation.

Client—Didn't you make a mistake in going into law instead of the army? Lawyer—Why? Client—By the way you charge there would be little left of the enemy.—London Tit-Bits.

Rash presumption is a ladder which will break the mounter's neck.—German Proverb.

Books Written In Jail.

Jail seems to be a good place in which to write books. Literary men surpass themselves there. John Bunyan wrote "Pilgrim's Progress" in jail. Cervantes wrote "Dox Quixote" in prison. Defoe laid the plans for "Robinson Crusoe" during a term of confinement imposed on him for the writing of a pamphlet called "The Shortest Way With the Dissenters." Leigh Hunt wrote "Rimini" in jail. Sir Walter Raleigh during his fourteen years' imprisonment in the Tower of London wrote his excellent "History of the World." Silvio Pellico and Tasso both did their best work in jail.

Food and Digestion.

One of the biggest mistakes about food which people make is to forget that the true value of food to anybody is the measure of its digestibility. Half a pound of cheese is vastly more nourishing, as regards its mere composition, than half a pound of beef; but while the beef will be easily digested, and thus be of vast service to us, the cheese is put out of court altogether for ordinary folks by reason of its indigestibility. We should bear this rule in mind when we hear people comparing one food with another in respect of their chemical value.

A Careful Official.

"Some years ago," remarked a physician, "when the people in the south feared that an epidemic of yellow fever would spread from Cuba to this country the health board officer of a certain southern city was so careful to keep out the infection that he gave orders to disinfect all telegrams received from Havana."

One Sided Talk.

He—Wasn't there some talk about Maud marrying a duke? She—There was, but unfortunately the duke did none of the talking.

What He Would Do.

Grandpapa — Tommy, Tommy, you aren't behaving well. Do you know what I should do if I were a little boy like you? Tommy—Yes, grandpapa, you'd do the same as I do, 'cause if you didn't you wouldn't be a little boy like me.

The Universe.

The heavens themselves, the planets and this center, observe degree, priority and place, insisture, course, proportion, season, form, office and custom, and all in line of order.—Shakespeare.

Asks a Good Deal.

"How about the rent of this house of yours, Flitter? Doesn't the landlord ask a good deal for it?"

Flitter—Yes. He often asks five and six times a month for it.

The kangaroo readily jumps from sixty to seventy feet. The highest recorded leap of a horse is thirty-seven feet.

Any store can claim to be the best, to give the greatest values, it only takes nerve to do that; but few stores can PROVE day after day after years as this store has done. In all our mercantile career we have never made a single claim that was not backed up with the goods—that's the Polvogt way of doing things.

When we say a piece of merchandise is worth so much you can depend upon its being so, when we say a price is reduced it is reduced. We do not conduct this business on "hit or miss" methods, but in the "sure and certain" way. STIRRED UP OVER COTTON.

It is announced from Boston that the New England cotton manufacturers plan to be well represented at the international conference of manufacturers, spinners and cotton growers, to be held in Atlanta, in October. More than a hundred European manufacturers and spinners have already signified their intention to attend.

In order that the European visitors may know more about the section of the United States which produces the bulk of the raw cotton used in the world, a nineteen-day trip in the South is being planned for them. They will be joined in New York by a party of American manufacturers and, travelling by special train, will visit the cotton manufacturing centres ad the cotton growing districts. They will be shown plantations at the picking season, and see the cotton taken from the field, ginned, baled, compressed, and started on its way to market and mill.

Very great interest is being manifested at Boston in the Atlanta conference. New England will be well represented there, and it will be curious to watch the result of the coming together of so many varied interests of the cotton industry. A Boston writer, telling of New England's interest in the conference, says:

"The South has climatic conditions for the growing of cotton unlike any other part of the world. It has been said that 'until a revolution occurs in the meteorological constitution of the earth the South will maintain the leadership."

If the Atlanta conference results in better methods for packing and caring for cotton, it will do a good work toward helping us to maintain our cotton supremacy.

SIGN OF EARLY AND LONG WINTER.

There may be something in some signs, but we don't know. We have to keep up with the weather signs, however, to keep from getting left if anything comes out of them. Therefore, we have to give this from the Philadelphia Record:

"The report from Cape May that an enormous gathering of swallows had been observed there, after which the lot flew southward, with the consequent augury for an early and long Winter,' said a weather sharp, 'is rather discouraging in these days of high-priced coal and other expenses, but, if it must be, so be it. The old saying that a single swallow does not make a Summer may be amended by adding that a conference, or mass meeting, or convention, or whatever you may call it, of swallows, cannot make a Winter. Just what the Cape May swallows detect in the August weather conditions to induce them to fly southward I am at a loss to imagine. We were having a bit of cool weather, to be sure, but not enough to chill even a swallow — at least it doesn't affect the sparrows, who haven't any more feathers than swallows. The careful observer will probably note in a few days that the swallows are coming north again, evidently realizing that they started on a false alarm."

The sign, they say, is for an early and long Winter. As a matter of fact, it has already been frosting in Minnesota and other Northwestern States, and it is now unseasonably cold at the Northern Summer resorts.

RELIGIOUS SNAKE STORY.

We have seen snake stories of various kinds, but we have never seen a religious snake story till we got a glimpse of that one sent from Nashville, Tenn., on Tuesday. The story goes that the Rev. William Grabb, pastor of the Church of the First Born, is creating intense excitement throughout Brown county by adding hundreds of persons to his flock by demonstrating the truth of his creed with rattlesnakes.

He declares that nothing can bring harm to the true worshippers of the Most High, and said he could handle any kind of reptile without injury to himself under the divine protection, which he asserts is ever about him. In order to test his faith, it is said that rattlesnakes caught in the woods but a few days ago were taken to the church, and he was asked to prove his sincerity. He took them out of the box and wrapped them about his neck and thus adorned exhorted his hearers. Every sinner in the audience went to the mourner's bench as a result of the demonstration.

A story like that is sent out for people to believe and lots of them will believe it, too.

TAMMANY CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

The Savannah Morning News remarks:

"Tammany Hall, according to a story from New York, will present a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. He is Louis Stuyvesant Chanler, now Lieutenant Governor of the State. The movemet in favor of the Chanler boom is said to have been organized nearly a year ago, and to have behind it all of the social prestige and wealth of the Astor family. But may it not be that his silk stocking connections and his family's wealth will prove a handicap to the aspirations of the gentleman?"

If the silk stocking business doesn't make him eligible and help him out, it will be the first time that it has failed in a long time—speaking in a general political way. A man has to have a big pull or a big purse to get most any kind of office now. It has gotten so it costs a man a pile of money to be Governor, United States Senator, and the like. The man without the dough is not in the race.

MISLEADING THE RACE.

We do not know but one of Booker T. Washington's assistants has now gotten into a position where he can mislead his race instead of teaching it lessons of industry. A dispatch from New York says:

"The success which has attended realty companies, mercantile enterprises and business institutions run by colored persons in the interests of ther race has now brought about the starting of a stock brokerage office in the Wall Street district. It will open for business on September 1. Robert W. Taylor, who for fourteen years has been the financial secretary of Tuskegee Institute, has leased offices and has issued an attractive pamphlet, which has been extensively c irculated among Afro-Americans."

Dabbling in stocks is bad for the white man and for the black man. They are lambs for the fleecers and if the darkey is to add Wall Street gambling to his other vices, we pity the race.

CURRENT COMMENT.

During the President's various jaunts this week extraordinary precautions will be taken for his protection. It must pain him to learn that there are so many "undesirable citizens" abroad in the land.—Savannah News.

TWINKLINGS.

—"How do you know he hasn't any sense of humor?" "Because he hasn't any sense of any kind."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—"Have you ever contributed any money toward the cause of higher education?" "Indeed, yes. We use Standard oil at our house."—Life.

—He—"Have you been coming here every season?" She—"Oh, no; not every season. This has been a resort, you know, ever since 1850." He—"Where did you go that year?"—Judge.

—"How did the Bullyons ever manage to get in the social swim?" "Via Wall Street. Old Bullyons went there and 'plunged' in."—Baltimore American.

—Two Views.—Mr. Speck—"Stocks are lower than they have been for years." Mrs. Speck—"Oh, dear, no, hubby; why, they're wearing them higher than ever."—Baltimore American.

—"Your customs are enough to make any civilized man boil!" exclaimed the missionary, indignantly. "With the help of a little dry wood," assented the cannibals, gravely.—Puck.

—The Maid—"I hear that you received an offer of marriage the other day?" Cicely—"Yes; from a man who wrote that his love far outdistanced his income." The Maid—"How poetic! What was his name?" Cicely—"I didn't think to look at the signature."—Judge.

DRAKES
PALMETTO
COMPOUND

STOMACH, LIVER and KIDNEYS.

We know it will produce just such radical cures. We have seen it tested in absolute chronic cases, in fact, cases where every other known treatment seemed to have failed and in none of them did Palmetto fail to produce speedy and lasting cures; these same people are as healthy and strong to-day as they ever were in their life. Lame back, headaches, shooting pains in the shoulders, quivering of the flesh, indigestion, no appetite, pains after eating, etc., any one or all of these symptoms indicate stomach or kidney troubles and treatment should not be delayed. We guarantee that one bottle of Palmetto will do more genuine good in such cases than all other medicines you have ever taken combined.

We guarantee every bottle; if it fails to cure, take the empty bottle back to your druggist and get your money back.

Bright's Disease. Drake's Palmetto cured me of Bright's Disease. I have bought and given away four 75c bottles to my neighbors. Wm. D. Sweet, Plessis, N. Y.

Indigestion, Constipation and Catarrh. Your Palmetto has cured me of indigestion, constipation and catarrh of the head. I shall never be without the grand medicine. Mrs. L. Boyd, Rector, Clay Co., Ark.

The Undertaker's Shop.

"The one thing in New York that I can't get used to," said the country visitor, "is the manifold uses to which undertakers put their shops. I used to be of the opinion that the only possible errand a person could have at an undertaker's was to purchase funeral supplies, but in this town I find that people go there for all sorts of purposes. They go to vote, to get married and to transact all the legal business that a notary public is capable of transacting. Yesterday I even saw a party eating luncheon in an undertaker's establishment. They had come into town apparently to attend a funeral and instead of patronizing a restaurant they calmly munched their midday meal in the midst of those lugubrious surroundings." — New York Globe.

Irascible Carlyle.

A lady who lived near Thomas Carlyle kept Cochin China fowls, and their crowing was such a nuisance that the philosopher sent a complaint to her. The owner was indignant upon hearing the appeal.

"Why," said she, "they crow only four times a day, and how can Mr. Carlyle be seriously annoyed at that?"

Upon hearing of her attitude upon the subject Carlyle replied, "The lady forgets the pain I suffer in waiting for those four crows."

Once Too Often.

"What's all this excitement about?"

"Nothing worth mentioning. Man got knocked down."

"Accident?"

"Not exactly. One of these men who always catch hold of you and push you out of their way when you happen to meet them at a crowded corner grabbed the wrong man just now. That's all."—Chicago Tribune.

Saving Time.

Father (to his son, early in the morning)—What is the meaning of this? You are lying in bed with your clothes on. Son (a student)—Yes, father. I do that so that if I oversleep myself I shall not be late at college.—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Torture.

A shrewd old doctor once said: "If I wanted to torture an enemy, I would tell him he had an incurable disease. His life would be miserable, and he would be almost certain to die before his time."

Missed Vocation.

Client—Didn't you make a mistake in going into law instead of the army? Lawyer—Why? Client—By the way you charge there would be little left of the enemy.—London Tit-Bits.

Rash presumption is a ladder which will break the mounter's neck.—German Proverb.

Books Written In Jail.

Jail seems to be a good place in which to write books. Literary men surpass themselves there. John Bunyan wrote "Pilgrim's Progress" in jail. Cervantes wrote "Dox Quixote" in prison. Defoe laid the plans for "Robinson Crusoe" during a term of confinement imposed on him for the writing of a pamphlet called "The Shortest Way With the Dissenters." Leigh Hunt wrote "Rimini" in jail. Sir Walter Raleigh during his fourteen years' imprisonment in the Tower of London wrote his excellent "History of the World." Silvio Pellico and Tasso both did their best work in jail.

Food and Digestion.

One of the biggest mistakes about food which people make is to forget that the true value of food to anybody is the measure of its digestibility. Half a pound of cheese is vastly more nourishing, as regards its mere composition, than half a pound of beef; but while the beef will be easily digested, and thus be of vast service to us, the cheese is put out of court altogether for ordinary folks by reason of its indigestibility. We should bear this rule in mind when we hear people comparing one food with another in respect of their chemical value.

A Careful Official.

"Some years ago," remarked a physician, "when the people in the south feared that an epidemic of yellow fever would spread from Cuba to this country the health board officer of a certain southern city was so careful to keep out the infection that he gave orders to disinfect all telegrams received from Havana."

One Sided Talk.

He—Wasn't there some talk about Maud marrying a duke? She—There was, but unfortunately the duke did none of the talking.

What He Would Do.

Grandpapa — Tommy, Tommy, you aren't behaving well. Do you know what I should do if I were a little boy like you? Tommy—Yes, grandpapa, you'd do the same as I do, 'cause if you didn't you wouldn't be a little boy like me.

The Universe

The heavens themselves, the planets and this center, observe degree, priority and place, insisture, course, proportion, season, form, office and custom, and all in line of order.—Shakespeare.

Asks a Good Deal.

"How about the rent of this house of yours, Flitter? Doesn't the landlord ask a good deal for it?"

Flitter—Yes. He often asks five and six times a month for it.

The kangaroo readily jumps from sixty to seventy feet. The highest record of leap of a horse is thirty-seven feet.

AN INCORRIGIBLE SYRIAN.

Son of Orient Before Mayor in Police Court—Reckless Driving.

Charles Rabial, a stockily built, square-rigged Syrian lad, described by his companions of the street as a "holy terror," was before the Mayor yesterday at noon in the police court, charged with an assault upon another boy in the vicinity of Front and Princess streets yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. He was engaged in a rough and tumble encounter with a companion of larger proportions than himself near the postoffice, and when he got the worst end of the scuffle, he ran off, armed himself with a cobble stone and was preparing to do a David and Goliath act when Policeman Leon George swooped down on him and he ran like a Turk, the officer finaly overtaking him somewhere on the postoffice green. He is scarcely over 12 years of age and when the case was called before the Mayor, he ordered the youngster to be sent below for a while until communication could be had with a cousin who lives in the northern part of the city. Soon after he had been remanded to a cell in the police station he raised such a racket banging and shaking at his door and shouting at the top of his voice that life about the City Hall was unbearable and the offices on the first floor had to suspend business for the while. Later the cousin of the boy saw the Mayor and promised to send the incorrigible to a brother he has in Georgetonw, S. C. The cousin was fully as anxious to get rid of the boy as was the Mayor, and he will be forwarded to the city on the Pee Dee by today's train.

The only other cases before the Mayor yesterday were those of Willie Clifton and Chas. Walker, colored boys charged with racing their horses on Fifth, between Market and Princess streets. They were overhauled by Superintendent of Streets Pickett Wednesday afternoon, but one of the number got away. He was subsequently arrested by Officer J. S. Lane, however, and both were fined $5 and costs by the Mayor yesterday.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

Brewry Wagon Team Dashed Down Second From Princess Street.

An exciting runaway occurred yesterday morning near the intersection of Second and Princess streets, Miss Hattie M. Whitaker, assistant manager of R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency in this city, having a narrow escape from being knocked down and run over by the team. Those who witnessed the runaway were almost impelled to turn away at the narrow escape of the young lady, who was crossing the street and had just reached the sidewalk as the frightened animals dashed by. They were attached to one of the large delivery wagons of the Home Brewing Company and became frightened at Second and Princess when a wheel of the vehicle ran off, causing the wagon to drop to one side on the pavement. The negro driver was thrown from his seat and narrowly escaped being run over also. The horses dashed around the corner of Second street, up to Chesnut and down Chesnut to Front street, then turning south and one of them falling nearly in front of the Southern building. Mr. J. G. Littig, Jr., manager of the company in this city, was near when the horses dashed around the postoffice corner and soon caught the bridle of the horse that had not fallen. Both were then gotten under control and sent to the stable very little injured.

Mr. C. J. Cooper, who recently purchased the LaFayette Hotel property, has sold half of his interest in this property to Mr. C. Gresham, of Charlotte. Mr. Gresham is one of the most successful hotel men in the South, and on a recent visit to this city he was so pleased with the bright future of Fayetteville that he subsequently decided to invest in the hotel property here. The LaFayette is one of the handsomest hotels in the State, and is splendidly located.

The present manager, Mr. Charles Cagle, has shown marked ability and success in the past few years, and he will continne as manager under the new ownership.

The Observer also announces that Mr. J. F. Flowers, late stamping clerk of the Southeastern Tariff Association at Charlotte, has accepted the position as manager of the Scottish Fire Insurance Company. Mr. Flowers entered upon his duties on the 15th, instant, and will shortly move his family to Fayetteville to live.

The growth of the Scottish since it began business has been so phenomenal that it is seeking new and larger quarters, and will in a few days move into the old National Bank building, which has been fitted up especially for this company.

The blue and gray F. I. L. I. battalion will celebrate its 114th anniversary tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with target practice, the company record now being held by Sergeant W. D. Bullard, who made 25 out of a possible 25 on February 22nd this year. The veterans crops will also meet with the battalion and the election of company officers will take place.

Dr. A. S. Rose, superintendent of health, has received a report from the State chemist advising that the city water supply is slightly contaminated. A notice is issued to the people to boil the water before using for drinking purposes and the Board of Aldermen met tonight with the Board of Public Works to arrange for the installation of a filter at the waterworks plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wells Bereaved.

Friends of Mr and Mrs. Alex. Wells will sympathize with them deeply in the death of their infant son, Richard D., aged six months and 22 days, which occurred yesterday at 11:45 o'clock at the family home, No. 612 South Third street, after an illness of some days. Mr. Wells is one of the most popular members of the Wilmington Police Department and many of his friends in this organization took occasion to call at the saddened home yesterday and pay their respects to the deeply bereaved parents. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the residence and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

FROM THE ORPHANS

They Extend Thanks for Kind Expression of Fire Laddies.

The Star has received the following which is published with pleasure:

"We, among other things, want to extend thanks, on behalf of our orphans and ourselves, to the fire laddies of Wilmington for the nice little purse of $5 modestly handed to us on the steamer Wilmington Wednesday, the amount having been raised by a small division of their department, who, through the generous hospitality of Captain J. W. Harper, were, like us, making a gala day at Carolina Beach. They, as well as the kind captain, contributed largely towards giving us a gala day.

"They kindly invited our children to visit their department while in the city and we hope they will find time to do so.

"Our Odd Fellows, including the Rebekahs and all Wilmington seem determined that we shall have a happy time while resting in the Queen City by the sea. Thanks.

"J. F. BRINSON,
"Superintendent."

RANSACKED A RESIDENCE

Home of Mrs. Kate T. Cumming Entered by Burglars Wednesday Night

The police were notified yesterday by residents in the vicinity that on Wednesday night the residence of Mrs. Kate T. Cumming, No. 318 South Third street, had been entered by burglars, entrance having been effected by prizing open the blinds and breaking out a window glass.

Mrs. Cumming and other occupants of the home have been away at Norfolk for some time and the house had been closed. The broken window was noticed yesterday morning and the police were sent for. Officers Huggins and H. W. Howell went up to the house and found that it had been ransacked almost from cellar to garret but in the absence of the owner, it is not known whether anything was stolen or not. It is significant that a chest of valuable silverware had been emptied in the middle of a bed in one of the rooms, this giving the impression that the burglar was evidently searching for money and did not carry away anything with the possible exception of jewelry or other articles that could be readily turned into cash without danger of detection, all the silverware being marked. An officer guarded the house last night in anticipation of the return of the raiders but nothing developed. Mrs. Cumming has been notified in Norfolk of the burglary and it will be ascertained whether anything is missing in a day or two.

Her Birthday Party.

NEGRO'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Body Found in Pile of Lumber Near Wilson Yesterday Morning.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Wilson, N. C., August 22.—Mystery surrounds the death of Joe Baine, a well dressed, middle-aged negro, thought to be from Savannah, Ga., whose body was found early this morning stark and stiff, in a sitting posture wedged between some plank near the Coast Line railroad tracks in the northern part of the city. The negro was identified by a return trip ticket from the Jamestown Exposition to Savannah, this having been validated in Norfolk on August 21st and found in his pocket with $22.18 in money, a pocket handkerchief and a small pocket mirror. A coroner's jury was empanelled and is inquiring into the cause of the death. It is hardly thought that he could have fallen from a train as the train he should have been travelling on last night came in on another track and the body was some distance from any other tracks. There is a deep gash in the head and a broken bone protudes from the ankle, but there is no blood anywhere. Murder is suggested but the coroner's jury is making full inquiry into the case.

INSANE PRISONERS MUTINY.

Lock Doors in Guards' Face—One Prisoner Shot Dead.

Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 22.—A special to the Gazette says:

One of the worst outbreaks among the insane prisoners in the history of Clinton prison at Dannemora, occurred last night. As a result Isaac DuBois one of the inmates is dead, shot through the heart by a guard.

The insane prisoners were being marshalled for bed when at a given signal they rushed into the two big lower dormitories and locked the doors in the faces of the guards. They then set about making their escape, by smashing the doors and sawing the bars. The guards turned on the convicts streams of water from the fire hose. This did not subdue them, and the guards were finally obliged to use rifles and pistols. Several prisoners were seriously wounded.

MURDER TO HIDE CRIME.

Counterfeiters Kill One of Their Confederates—Feared Betrayal.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Palermo, Aug. 22.—The finding today of two half-burned chests containing portions of a human body, in the forest of Belle Tampo, not only brought to light a brutal murder, but also led to the discovery of an extensive plant for the manufacture of spurious bank notes. Italy has recently been flooded with this counterfeit money. The victim of the murder has been identified as Henry Francois, a deserter from the French army. A local engraver, his wife and two merchants have been arrested, both as the assassins and as counterfeiters. The motive for the crime is alleged to have been the fear of betrayal by Francois, who was a member of the gang.

KILLED WOMAN HE LOVED.

THE "GWEED NEEBORS."

A Belief In Fairies Still Exists In Parts of Scotland.

There still lingers a widespread belief in the north of Scotland that the "fair folk," or "gweed neebors," as the fairies are called, still live in the hills, and during the first days of convalescence a mother must be zealously guarded lest one of the "wee people" come and rob the child of its nourishment. Sometimes they succeed in carrying off the mother. Here is one of the superstitious legends:

A north country fisher had a fine child. One evening a beggar woman entered the hut and went up to the cradle to gaze into the eyes of the babe. From that time good health left it, and a strange look came into its face, and the mother was troubled. An old man begging for food passed that way. When he caught sight of the child he cried:

"That's nae a bairn. It's an image, and the gweed folk has stoun his speerit."

Thereupon he set to work to recall the fisher's bairn. A peat fire was heaped high on the hearth and a black hen held over it at such a distance that it was singed and not killed. After some struggling the hen escaped up the lum. A few moments elapsed, and then the parents were gladdened by the sight of a happy expression once more on the child's face. It throve from that day forward.—Spectator.

It Might Have Been Worse.

Mark Twain, during one of his lecture tours, was waiting at a station for a delayed train. The lecture committee and several townsmen were with him and talking their best to pass the time away. One man told about a frightfully unhealthy town he had read about, and it was a grewsome tale of dying and burials and that sort. "It might have been worse," Twain followed, in his slow and direct manner. "I lived in that same town for two years, and I never died once—not a single time." The way he said it seemed to daze the crowd, and not a man said a word in response. "Of course you may think I'm lying," the humorist continued, "and I'm sorry, for I can't get any witnesses to testify that I didn't, because everybody else that lived there is dead."

Germany's Strict Laws.

In no country is the government more strict than in Germany. If a foreigner wishes to remain in a town for some days he must take his passport to the police and receive in exchange for it, together with a sixpenny piece, a permit card, which entitles him to remain there for six months. The passport is pigeonholed. If, however, you desire to change your lodging both you and your landlord must give notice to the police. This system recommends itself not a little, for it prevents pauper immigration. No German is allowed to leave the country unless he can show he has done the military service required of him. If a man is on the point of starting he must delay his departure until he gets a passport showing that he is a free man.

Moisten the Buttonhole.

Every man knows the difficulty and agony of a refractory collar stud. With a breakfast to eat, a train to catch and an appointment to keep, few things are more maddening than the collar which simply will not ally itself to the stud. But few things are so easy to remedy. All that is necessary is to dip the thumb and forefinger in water and slightly moisten the obstinate buttonhole. Then the stud slips in without a murmur.

A Mystery of Indo-China.

The great mystery about Indo-China and one which must ever be insoluble is the story of the lost race and the vanished civilization of that strange country. The mighty walls of Angkor-Wat, rising in the midst of sparsely settled jungles, remain as the memorial of a great empire which has utterly disappeared and is altogether lost to history. No one will ever know who planned this gigantic temple or what tyrant hounded on his myriads of people to build up those immense blocks of stone and cover them with the most elaborate of sculptures. Angkor-Wat was one of the most astonishing monuments in the world, and this forgotten temple was built so as to endure as long as the earth itself were it not for the irresistibly destructive effect of plant life on the strongest walls that man can raise. Only a highly civilized and very wealthy people could have erected Angkor-Wat, a very different race from the Anamite of modern days. The whole nation has disappeared as utterly as the busy myriads who once populated the wastes and solitudes of Memphis.—Singapore Free Press.

He Got the Trout.

A story dealing with a large trout that was rising regularly and frequently is told in "How to Fish: A Treatise on Trout and Trout Fishers." This is the story:

"He was going up and down, up and down, up and down; not as the insects offered themselves, but as it suited his composure that he should take a midge from the abundance. One youth was casting at the trout; another was looking on. Said the angler, 'I'll have that fish whether he takes it or not.' 'How?' his friend asked. 'I'll throw the fly into his mouth.' The trout went on rising; the angler went on casting. I perceived the angler's notion. It was that if he kept casting accurately and the trout continued to rise in the regular manner mentioned, the fly would ere long fall at the very moment when a midge was being taken. This reckoning was justified. The large trout was hooked and landed by a fly that had been cast into his mouth."

Old Fashioned Oratory.

"We don't have no sich forensic oratory as we used to have," said the old settler. "Lawyers nowadays don't orate. They only just talk.

"Take old Bill K. Simmons of Eau Clair. If Bill was defendin' a lowly chicken thief he'd speak with the tongue of angels. I'll never forgit the peroration of his impassioned philippic in the Clay Bull case about the poisoned cat. It runs like this here."

The little, thin old man rose, reared back in a defiant attitude and shouted in the cracked treble of age:

"'Restin' upon the couch of republican liberty as I do, covered with the blanket of constitutional panoply as I am and protected by the aegis of American equality as I feel myself to be, I despise the buzzin' of the professional inseck who has just sot down and defy his attempt to penetrate with puny sting the interstices of me impervious coverin'.'"—New York Press.

The Log Driver.

The life of a river log driver is a life that seems to get hold of one after a year or two. You are generally wet through for twelve hours out of the twenty-four. Ten of you sleep in a 12 by 15 foot shanty; you live on fried everything, "black strap," treacle and stewed tea. You go to bed at 10 and get up at 3. You are everlastingly cursed and never praised by the foreman. Your life is in danger more or less all day long, and you never get more than $35 a month for work that is worth $100. "Then why stick at it?" you say, and all I can answer is, "Just give it a fair trial for a year, and then you'll know."—Wide World Magazine.

Superlatives.

Dr. Johnson says in his "Grammar of the English Tongue," "The comparison of adjectives is very uncertain and, being much regulated by commodiousness of utterance, is not easily reduced to rules."

Then he quotes passages from "Paradise Lost" in which the words "virtuousest" and "powerfullest" are found and a passage from "Samson Agonistes" which contains the word "famousest."

Surely Milton had an ear.—Notes and Queries.

Tough Fare.

In a New Zealand town one of the municipal candidates, a pronounced Scotsman, had received a present of a huge Scotch thistle, which at the moment happened to be lying on the table of his committee room. A friend, entering, withdrew suddenly, with the remark: "I beg your pardon. I didn't know you were at luncheon."

Too, Too Much.

"Thank you, son," said old Tightfist to the boy who had run several blocks on an errand for him. "Here's a penny fur ye."

"Don't tempt me, guv'ner," said the bright boy. "If I was ter take all dat money I might buy a auto wid it an' git pinched for scorchin'."—Philadelphia Press.

Ingenious.

Servant (to artist returning from a holiday)—There have been so many callers since you left that I have been obliged to wash the names from the slate twice to make room for others.—Pearson's Weekly.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—LaGrange, August 21: The Norfolk and Southern Railroad is now engaged in putting up wires for a telephone exchange for the town.

—Clarkton Express: The people who have to cross the swamps coming into Clarkton are anxious to see the work of improving them begin. Water has been running over buggy seats this week.

—Fayetteville Observer, August 21: Captain Jerre Respass left this morning for St. Paul's with a surveying corps, for the purpose of making the final survey of the Virginia and Carolina Southern Railroad, which is being built from Lumberton to Hope Mills, and which eventually is to enter Fayetteville.

—The annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans of Seventy-First, Quewhiffle, Little River and Rockfish Townships, will be held at Hope Mills on Saturday, September 7th, 1907. The Confederate Veterans will assemble at the depot at 11 o'clock A. M. and march to the place selected for the exercises. A. D. McGill is Captain Commander.

—Goldsboro, N. C., August 21: The grand jury have returned a true bill against Everett M. Talton for murder in the first degree, and his trial has been set for Friday morning of this week at 9:30 o'clock, and a special venire of fifty has been ordered. Talton is the white man who some months ago deilberately shot to death Major Jones, another white man, in this city.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 22: Superintendent J. R. Poole, of Robeson county, was in the city yesterday on business with the Department of Education. Superintendent Poole says Robeson has twenty local tax school districts and petitions have been presented applying for four more. Robeson is to have three county high schools for the present and the board of education has yet to decide upon the locations. Four locations are in competition for the three schools, these being Lumber Bridge, Philadelphus, Orrum and Rowland.

—Fayetteville Observer, August 21: Mr. Herbert McDonald died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. E. A. McDonald, on Gillespie street yesterday evening at seven o'clock. He had been unwell for a week or two past, but was able to be up yesterday. He was sitting in a chair, and his aunt, Mrs. Lizzie McDonald, was reading to him when he suddenly expired. About five years ago his twin brother, Mr. Harry McDonald, died, also quite suddenly. The deceased was 28 years of age, a good-hearted, kindly young man and his death will be regretted by a number of friends.

—Asheville, N. C., August 21: Six houses were burglarized here last night and some money and valuables were stolen. The houses were all located in the Victoria section of the city and evidently one man did the whole job. The burglar effected entrance by removing the putty from the windows and removing panes of glass At one place he walked across the foot of a bed where a man and his wife slept. That the man didn't wear socks and that he removed his shoes before entering the room was evidenced by the soiled imprint of toes and heel on the bed covering. At another place the burglar entered a room where five men slept, stole five pairs of trousers, removed the garments to the yard and there searched them, leaving the wearing apparel on the ground. The bed where slept a lady and her daughter in a room in another of the six houses was pulled away from the wall. None of these people was aroused and knew nothing of the presence of the burglar until they arose this morning. The man has not been apprehended.

—Goldsboro, August 21: Superior Court is in session in this city this week with Judge B. L. Long, of Statesville, presiding. The criminal docket is one of the largest in the history of the county and will engage the attention of the court all this week and the greater part of next. The civil docket is also very large. There are three capital cases to be disposed of at this term as follows: Toba Wilson, colored, for being a party to the murder of Sarah Cooper, an old colored woman, in the Little Washington section of the city some months ago; Jonas Fillmore, colored, for burglary and attempted criminal assault on a white woman in this county last Thursday night, and Eb. Talton, white, for the murder of Major Jones, also white, in the northern part of this city, on the night of August 1st. Talton was arraigned Monday afternoon and his trial was set for Friday of this week and a special venire of fifty men was ordered. The case promises to be stubbornly contested. Messrs. Aycock and Daniels and W. T. Dortch represent the defendant, while Solicitor Jones will be assisted in the prosecution by Mr. George E. Hood.

Why Is Sugar Sweet.

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years. 50 cents.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 22.—The cotton market was lower today, with the close steady at a net decline of 6 to 8 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 150,000 bales. The opening was barely steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 6 points, with active months selling five to six points net lower shortly afterward under liquidation by yesterday's buyers, who were influenced by private reports of rain or showers in north Texas and the Territories. But cables made a fairly firm showing and, after the first lot of selling orders had been absorbed, the market rallied to a point or so over the closing figures of yesterday on covering and bull support. It quickly weakened, however, upon the announcement of a failure in Wall street, and during the afternoon active months sold off to a net loss of about 8 or 9 points. The close was a shade up from the lowest on covering. Trading was less active than yesterday, and chiefly for local account.

Receipts at the ports today 1,705 bales, against 671 last week and 7,314 last year. For the week, 12,000 bales, against 8,280 last week, and 49,414 last year. Today's receipts at Houston, 915 bales, against 4,498 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady; middling uplands, 13.35; middling Gulf, 13.60; sales, 865 bales.

Futures opened barely steady and closed steady.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scienists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being strongly urged; careless then being fatal to longlevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine, that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50 cents.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TWO BAD FIRES IN PITTSBURG

Eight Buildings Burned and Property Loss is About Million Dollars.

MANY LIVES IN DANGER

Fourteen Persons Rescued From One Building—Both Fires Started From Explosions of Gasolene in Business District.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., August 22—Two fires today caused by the explosion of gasoline in clothes pressing establishments, caused damage estimated at $250,000 and for a time threatened the entire east end section of this city. The first fire broke out shortly before noon in the club pressing and cleaning company at 6,339 Pennsylvania Avenue. The three story brick building was destroyed and 14 employes were rescued from the windows by firemen. The second fire was more serious and before it was controlled seven buildings were wiped out. The blaze started in the Enterprise Pressing Company's shop at 5,975 Center Avenue, about 2 o'clock, and spread with great rapidity east and west.

A number of automobile garages in the neighborhood had quantities of gasoline on hand and barrels and tanks of the fuel were removed from the vicinity. The flames leaped into the air fifty feet above the burning buildings. Shortly after 4 o'clock the fire was declared to be under control.

STOCK MARKET HESITATING

Operators Hardly Know Which Way the Cat Will Jump.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 22.—Following an early period of irregularity today's stock market moved to a generally higher level. Business was only moderate in volume, however, and operations savored strongly of professionalism.

On the whole a better feeling prevailed as to the future of the market. This sentiment was based in part on the absence of pressure to sell stocks and the belief that all ordinary commercial and industrial failures have been discounted. Business on the exchange during the early session was slightly enlivened by the suspension of an inconspicuous brokerage firm whose embarrassment was attributed to the failure of its customers to make good on impaired margins. The traction shares were an exception to the general recovery. Pressure against teh Interborough Metropolitan issues resulted in marked declines in both the common and preferred stocks, and followed further reports of a general reorganization of the whole system. Another cut in the price of copper was made by the local metal exchange but the copper shares held well above yesterday's closing quotations.

During the late session on the exchange the movement became irregular again, prices sagging somewhat on realizing for profits. The final hour developed increased dullness, but on a renewal of short covering prices moved up and closed at general net gains. A notable feature of the close was a further decline in Third Avenue stock which suffered a net loss of 8 3-4 points. In the time money market the feature today was advanced in thirty day rates to six per cent. For the longer periods, however, rates were unchanged and the scarcity continued.

The stagnant conditions in the bond market found further realization in the advance in the interest rate on city bonds from 4 to 4 1-2 per cent., the increase applying to all but revenue bonds.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales of bonds, par value, were $922,000. United States bonds were changed on call. Total sales of stocks today were 530,500 shares.

NOEL IS LEADING.

Second Democratic Primary for Governor in Mississippi.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 22.—The second primary election for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination was held in Mississippi today, the candidates being E. F. Noel and Earl Brewer. Weather conditions were good and early returns indicate that the vote was nearly as large as that cast August 1. Returns from 24 towns give Noel a lead of 208.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Complete returns from this nine counties give Brewer a lead of 51.

At 11 o'clock complete returns from ten counties out of 78 in the State, gave Neal a majority of 1,100 votes. This is a distinct gain for Neel over his vote in the same counties in the first primary. The result will probably not be known until tomorrow afternoon.

STRIKERS GIVE TROUBLE.

Western Union Appeals to Gov. Vardaman for Protection.

(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 22.—Superintendent Terhune, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, today appealed to Governor Vardaman to furnish protection for the offices of the Western Union at Holly Springs, Grenada and Greenwood, stating that operators have been forced to quit at the wto offices first named, and citizens of Greenwood are offering threats and indignities to the manager at that place.

The governor replied that Superintendent Terhune should appeal to the courts, and if they are unable to enforce the law he will adopt special measures for protection.

CUBAN FEVER SITUATION

Vigorous Efforts to Stamp Out Yellow Jack.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, August 22.—Complying with Secretary Taft's directions, Governor Magoen, of Cuba has taken steps to combat and eradicate the yellow fever which has appeared among the soldiers, and civilians at Cienfuegos, Cuba.

Governor Magoon today cabled the following report from Major Keen, at Cienfuegos:

Everything going well at post and in the city. All the sick soldiers convalescent except one. No new cases in city. Have two hundred and thirty men employed in fumigation. City divided into ten districts with efficient house to house inspection also five medical inspectors go over the various infected ones every day to examine all cases of sickness. One hundred additional men in ten gangs will begin drainage and can collecting tomorrow.

Chief Surgeon Taylor, at Mariamao, Cuba, today reported to the War Department that there is one new case of yellow fever at St. Nicholas; no new cases at Cienfuegos; and that the conditions generally are favorable.

BROWNSVILLE AFFRAY AGAIN.

General Meyer Refers to It in His Report.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Aug. 22.—An echo of the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Tex., by negro troops of the 25th Infantry, is found in the annual report of Brigadier General Albert L. Meyer, commanding the Department of Texas, for the fiscal year 1907, who refers to it as "a lamentable occurrence which is still shrouded in mystery to a great extent."

He added: "However, it seems to have been established that on the night in question a few enlisted men of the first battalion, 25th Infantry, then garrisoning Fort Brown, did go armed into Brownsville and do some promiscuous firing, resulting in the death of one civilian, one horse, and the wounding of one policeman. It has been impossible to identify the individuals who actually did the firing. Undoubtedly there was at that time mutually bad blood between a part of the garrison of Fort Brown and some of the citizens of Brownsville, and this fact must, to some extent, account for the occurrence."

FIVE ENTOMBED IN MINE

Fall of Rock in Coal Tunnel Caught Them.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Wilkesbarre, Pa., August 22.—Five men were entombed today by a fall of rock in No. 14 tunnel of the mine at Port Blanchard near here, operated by the Erie Coal Company. Michael Naughton, one of the men caught in the fall after several hours effort crawled from under the debris badly injured. He reported that four other men were caught in the fall.

Late tonight a rescuing party reached John Eustice, of Plainsville, and brought him to the surface. He was not injured but was completely exhausted. He fears that James Boyle, of Nickerman, and John and Joseph Koenig, Germans, for whom search is being made, are dead.

Taylor Ellyson, acting president of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, announced today that the unveiling of the monument to Captain John Smith being erected on Jamestown Island by the United States Government, will necessarily have to be postponed, the contractors giving notice that it will not be completed on September 11, the day set for the exercises. Uncertainty as to when the shaft will be completed prevents the naming of a future day.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, August 22.—Fire which started at 9 o'clock tonight at Hunt and Broadway streets entailed a loss estimated at $1,000,000. The fire, it is said, started in the Eagle White Lead plant and spread to adjoining buildings. At 10:30 the following buildings had been destroyed:

SECRETARY TAFT ON RACE ISSUE

He Addressed Repuplican State Convention at Louisville, Kentucky, Yesterday.

THINKS SOUTH VERY STUPID

Lets Race Question Keep It From Becoming Republican—Southern Negro's Best Friend—Disfranchisement of Both Races Proper.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 22.—Secretary of War Taft today opened the Republican State campaign with a discussion of the race problem, general political issues from the Southern standpoint, and an appeal to Kentuckians to aid the Republican party in support of those principles. Calling attention to what he called the South's lack of representation in the councils of the Nation, he declared that this was "because one single issue has made it the perpetual tail of the Democratic party, so that, however small the Northern head, it wags that tail. The South has permitted the shadow of an issue, that circumstances ought long ago to have removed, to bind it to the Democratic party, no matter what principles or candidates that party adopts."

He called attention to the prosperity of Kentucky's industries and agriculture and expressed the belief that many Kentuckians who favored a protective tariff had blindly voted the Democratic ticket because of feeling on the race issue. Then taking up the race question, he said:

"I know that the discussion by a Northern man of the question is apt to rouse from the Southern Democrat the objection that he does not understand the question; that he does not know the difficulties of it, and that if he cannot take it up with sympathy, with the attitude of the white man of the South, he had better not take it up at all. On the other hand he is liable to encounter the criticism of the colored man, who, with a natural sensitiveness, remembering the wrongs and oppression to which their race has been subjected, resents any attitude which does not involve condemnation of the Southern white man or which manifests the slightest consideration for his view. I am not a pessimist with respect to the race question. I am convinced that it is working itself out, and I am convinced that nothing has so much contributed to its gradual solution as the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments."

He continued:

"I shall not stop to give you the statistics showing the great progress that has been made by the negro race in the South. We are apt to forget this real improvement in the diatribes that we occasionally hear from men who lack sympathy with the progress of the colored race, and who denounce the entire race on account of a comparatively small criminal class that forms the dregs of the Southern population."

After mentioning the various means of disfranchising voters, and declaring that such laws were proper if applied with equal fairness to both white and black, he expressed the hope that as the colored citizens under the leadership of such men as Booker T. Washington, would "become respected business members of the communities in which they live, and when they exercise independence of judgment in respect to political issues we may be sure that gradually the right to vote will be accorded them and they will exercise a far more useful influence as inteligent and solid members of the community than the ignorant members of their race would have exercised, had they been allowed to vote. In this way, through devious ways which cannot be justified or approved, we may still reach a result that will square with the requirements of the Federal constitution and will give to the negro every political and economic right. The negro is necessary to the South as a laborer—skilled and unskilled. The world over today there is a demand for labor and were the negro to be withdrawn from the South the difficulties under which agriculture would labor can hardly be overstated. The negro is an American. He has no other country than this, and, called upon to defend it, he lays down his life with the same freedom that the white man sacrifices his. Our's is the flag he loves—the only one he knows. It is our duty to see to it that his path is made as easy as possible, and that his progress is as incessant as proper encouragement can make it. His best friend—the one that con do most for him and the one in many respects who sympathizes with him most—is the Southern white man. He understands his defects. He knows his virtues. And if the negro responds to the opportunities for improvement as Booker T. Washington points them out we can be sure that he will grow in the estimation of his white fellow citizens of the South and that the great problem which has burdened the South will be largely solved.

"The Fifteenth amendment does not require that every negro should vote. All that it requires is that he should not me excluded from voting because he is a negro. If he lacks educational qualifications, property qualifications or any other qualification that the State may lawfully impose as a rule of eligibility for its voters, then he may be excluded, provided that every one else who lacks similar qualifications is equally excluded. The 15th amendment is merely intended to secure him in his political rights from race discrimination by the States. It is not intended to give him affirmative privileges as a member of his race. Its strict enforcement does not involve an amalgamation of the race, has nothing to do with social association or equality. It does not involve so-called negro domination and to permit the question at this late day, forty years after the war, to control the votes of intelligent men in respect to issues that are living, is to indicate the lack of sense of propriety, which I cannot think, will continue to manifest itself in the South. If only under the influence of President Roosevelt's administration some of the Southern States, including Kentucky, could be led into the Republican column in accordance with the real sympathies of the voters in those States, it would be a crowning glory of his administration.

As an American citizen and lover of my country, I long for the time when the South shall be received again in the councils of the Nation and when the people of that section shall resume the influence to which they are entitled and which they deny themselves by being frightened at a mere ghost of the past."

On the question of greater Congressional representation than the vote of the South seemed to warrant he found an injustice which he believed had been largely counterbalanced by its tendency to drive Northern voters into the Republican party.

PRINCE WILHELM OF SWEDEN.

Royal Visitor Guest of Prominent People at Newport.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Newport, R. I., Aug. 22.—The Swedish armored cruiser Fylgia, with Prince Wilhelm, of Sweden, on board arrived here today from Jamestown, Va. The Prince was entertained at dinner by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish tonight, and later attended a dance given by Mrs. Edward J. Berwind.

Salutes were exchanged between the cruiser and Fort Adams, and the Reina Mercedes, flagship of Rear Admiral Merrill, as the cruiser entered the harbor.

The Prince, with his secretary, spent the greater part of the afternoon calling on Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Berwind, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore and Mrs. Richard Gambrill, who are entertaining him during his stay in this city.

Later in the afternoon the Prince received them on board the Fylgia. The dinner given by Mrs. Fish was of an elaborate nature. The flags of the United States and Sweden formed part of the decoration. At 11 o'clock the Prince and party and about 400 cottagers went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berwind, where a ball and supper were given.

The commissioned officers of the Fylgia and the United States officers in Newport were present in full naval uniform. The grounds of the Berwind estate were beautifully illuminated.

Tomorrow Prince Wilhelm will visit the naval station and inspect the submarine boats. Later in the day he will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore and Mrs. Ogden Mills.

The business men were asked either to give money or an order for advertising space in a newspaper which the strikers expect to issue soon. ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP TRAIN

Dastardly Attempt of Fiends Near Cripple Creek Col.

Every window in the last car was broken and M. J. McCarthy, of Victor, deputy State mine inspector, had his hand cut. A number of women fainted.
